

Daniel Kelly and family of Halkett Street Cardiff

1861 census in Halkett street. Llandaff. Cardiff

Daniel b1826 is living in Llandaff with wife Mary b1831,
Elizabeth b1853
Margaret b1854
Mary b 1855
Denis b 1859
(All above born Ireland)
Julia b 1860 born in Llandaff

Jan 1871 • Cardiff

Daniel Kelly sentenced to 14 days' hard labour for leaving his four children chargeable to the Cardiff Union. Additionally fined 10s or 14 days' imprisonment for causing an obstruction by leaving his cart in Halket Street

1871 census in Tredegar. Bedwelty. Monmouthshire

Dan Kelly widower b 1825 IrelandDealer in Rags
Dennis Kelly single b1860 Cardiff Labourer
Elizabeth Kelly single b1853 Seamstress (now says born in Cardiff)

hard labour.
STEALING IRON.—Julia Kelly was charged with stealing iron, the property of the Tredegar Iron Co. Superintendent Fowler said he was instructed to press the charge. The father was a confirmed drunkard, Prisoner, being under the age of 16, was sent to Usk for 14 days, and two years in a reformatory.

1871 census in District Cardiff Union School

Mary Kelly b1858 Liverpool
Julia Kelly b1860 Llandaff, Cardiff
Bridget Kelly b1862 Llandaff, Cardiff
Ann Kelly b1865 Llandaff, Cardiff

Deaths Mar 1868

KELLY Mary 40 Cardiff 11a 162

15th Jan 1876 Tredegar Bedwelty

Mary, Daniels wife must have died between 1865 and 1871 as he was classed as widower in 1871. Above is the most likely.

Daughter Margaret marries David Grace

Marriages Jun 1871

Grace	David	Newport, M.	11a 257
Kelly	Margaret	Newport, M.	11a 257

Elizabeth Death 1872

BURIALS in the Parish of Llandaff in the County of Glamorgan in the Year 1872
Name.	Abode.	When buried.	Age.	By whom the Ceremony was performed.
1872. Elizabeth Kelly	Lanton	Aug. 23.	20	J. J. Dias Off. Minister.

No. 1257.

Daniel had various convictions between 1871 and 1881 mainly for drunkenness and assault. He is on list of paupers for Cardiff Workhouse with 6 children in Halket Street. "destitute" given food and 1s 11d. Halket street, Llandaff, Cardiff. He is 46 in the index so he must be back in Halket street by 1872/3 (Or maybe backwards and Forwards)

South Wales Daily News 10th June 1875 Mary Kelly

TREDEGAR
STEALING IRON.—At the Police-court on Tuesday, before the Rev W. Hughes, Dr Coates, and Mr G. Harry, Mary Smith and Mary Kelly were charged with stealing a quantity of iron, the property of the Tredegar Iron Company (Limited). Mr Superintendent Fowler stated that the theft of iron from the works prevailed to a very great degree, and that the Company desired to press the charge. Both prisoners, who are very young, pleaded guilty to the charge. Kelly was sentenced to one month's imprisonment with hard labour and Smith to a fortnight's imprisonment.

South Wales Daily Telegram-Tue 28th Oct 1879 Julia Kelly

ROUGH AND READY.—Julia Kelly was charged with being disorderly in Herbert Street, yesterday afternoon, and with assaulting P.O. Williams. The prisoner was throwing stones about, and breaking windows. She refused to go to her own house when requested, and on being taken into custody she kicked the constable, and she further assaulted P.O. Skyrme who came up. She broke the latter named constable's helmet, broke the chain to which his whistle was attached, and bit his finger. She was eventually conveyed to the station on a truck.—She was sent to gaol for one month with hard labour.
 Margaret Grace, sister of the last prisoner, was similarly charged. She had thrown stones at him.—She was committed for 14 days with hard labour.
James Kelly, a cousin to the last prisoner, was charged with assaulting P.O. Skyrme by vigorously throwing stones at him.—Inspector Glass stated that there was a great disturbance in the street, which was quite blocked.—Prisoner was discharged with a caution.

am - Tuesday 28 October 1879 [

RIGHTS RESERVED.

there was another charge of assault against him.
ROUGH AND READY.—Julia Kelly was charged with being disorderly in Herbert Street, yesterday afternoon, and with assaulting P.O. Williams. The prisoner was throwing stones about, and breaking windows. She refused to go to her own house when requested, and on being taken into custody she kicked the constable, and she further assaulted P.O. Skyrme who came up. She broke the latter named constable's helmet, broke the chain to which his whistle was attached, and bit his finger. She was eventually conveyed to the station on a truck.—She was sent to goal for one month with hard labour.
Margaret Grace, sister of the last prisoner, was similarly charged. She had thrown stones at him.—She was committed for 14 days with hard labour.
James Kelly, a cousin to the last prisoner, was charged with assaulting P.O. Skyrme by vigorously throwing stones at him.—Inspector Glass stated that there was a great disturbance in the street, which was quite blocked.
—Prisoner was discharged with a caution.
THROWING STONES.—Francis Kelly was charged with throwing stones in the public street.—P.O. Hopkins saw the prisoner throwing a stone at another man in Bute Street; the man who was thrown at ducked his head, and so escaped the blow.—5s and costs, or, in default, five days' imprisonment.

Different names....

Monmouthshire Merlin Fri 2nd May 1879 Maybe Mary Kelly. Tredegar Police Court

LARCENY.—Mary Kelly pleaded guilty to a charge of stealing from the house of Charles Brown, engine-driver, two brooches and a cap, value 10s.—Sentenced to 21 days at Usk.

1881 census in Halkett street, Llandaff, Cardiff.

Elizabeth Kelly widow Pauper b1797 Cork Ireland
Dan Kelly widower Marine store dealer b1826
Julia Kelly single Marine Store Dealer b 1860 Cardiff
Bridget Kelly single Domestic servant b 1864 Cardiff.
Ann or Mary are not in 1881

1881 census in 1 St Georges Court, William street, St George in the East

Margaret Grace
David Grace
Margaret Ann Grace b1875 Tredegar

South Wales Daily News 12th June 1883

ASSAULTING A WOMAN.—Mary Ann Brian, a young woman, residing in Halkett-street, was remanded till Friday on the charge of assaulting another woman, named Julia Kelly, by striking her on the head with a teacup. The case was remanded, as the police could not find the complainant.

8th July 1884 South Wales Daily News

The bench fined him 20s and costs.—Julia Kelly, a woman of bad reputation, was sent to prison for ten days for being drunk and fighting and assaulting the police on Saturday night. Defendant had been nine times previously convicted for similar offences.

The following occurred in Newport, South Wales Telegram 29th May 1885

REFUSING TO GO HOME.—Julia Kelley was charged with being drunk and disorderly in Commercial Street. P. C. Thomas said that late on Monday night defendant was loitering about the streets, and would not go home. She used bad language to the officer. Fined 5s.

1886 marriages

Julia married John Murray in Cardiff Jun 1886

Bridget married Timothy Murry in Pontypool also in 1886

A possible Julia? Right age but in London South Wales Echo - Wednesday 26 October 1887

STRANGE ATTEMPT AT SUICIDE

At the Westminster police-court, London, yesterday, Julia Kelly, 25, a neatly-dressed young woman, was charged with attempting to commit suicide.—Prisoner was found by Police-constable 402 B on the Thames Embankment at Grosvenor-road at twelve o'clock the previous night. She went down the steps to the water-side, and, upon being brought back by the officer, attempted to jump over the parapet, but was prevented. She was the worse for liquor, and said, "I've tried it before, and I will do it."—Prisoner, who began to cry, said she could not say what induced her to attempt such a thing. She was very sorry.—Mr Partridge remanded her to the House of Detention for a week in order that she might be visited by the chaplain.

1891 census Cardiff Workhouse

Dan Kelly widower b1827 Ireland Inmate

1891 census Halkett street Cardiff

Julia Murray Head Widow b 1862 Cardiff

Bridget Murray Sister married b 1865 Cardiff

Edward Murray nephew b1889 Cardiff

John Murray nephew b 1890 Cardiff.